SUMMARY OF MESSAGE

Tonight we're finishing our series Streaks. We've been looking ahead to the summer and challenging students to keep some streaks alive. We've been walking through our mission here at InsideOut and have challenged students to keep these two streaks alive: love God and live different. Tonight we'll finish our series with one final challenge: to be someone who leads the way. Our goal is for students to show the people around them that there's a different way to live and lead others to live that way as well.
